

Missing Teen Suspected To Be Eaten by Shark Infested:Video Footage

Cameron Robbins, 18, who jumped off Bahamas Cruise Ship into a Shark infested water is now suspected to be killed by one of the sharks.

As a video footage captured in the waters surrounding a

Louisiana teen baseball star who jumped off a party cruise ship for a Dare as sparked great speculations of the video footage that the teen was swimming away from a Sharks. The footage showing Robbins swimming in the water as a life preserver was thrown out to him as classmates and friends tell him to grab on.

Here is the footage that was taken during the time of the shocking incident : Visit Official website to see Video

Cameron Robbins jumped off a Blackbeard's Revenge sunset cruise ship while celebrating his high school graduation near Athol Island, in the Bahamas last Wednesday. The search for the missing teen was called off two days later.

Reports are that Royal Bahamas Defense Force (RBDF) Commander Raymond King confirmed that the area Robbins went overboard was a danger zone with shark infested. The Bahamas is home to highly aggressive sharks, including bull and Tiger sharks.